

The Bird Treatment and Learning Center in Anchorage is a non-profit whose mission is to treat sick, injured, and orphaned wild birds and to provide educational opportunities for the public. The volunteers rehabilitate and release as many healthy birds as possible, while the education volunteers support public education outreach by providing live wild bird programs. Your donations for Bird TLC programs will help to ensure that Bird TLC is able to continue meeting the goals of its mission.